The News.

As Congress is not in session on Saturday, our Washington news is slow this morning.

Our telegraph to Mexico, Mr. Forsyth, has recognized the new Government of that country.

A terrible gas explosion occurred in a church at Cincinnati on Friday evening, injuring eight or ten persons badly, two or three of whom are expected to live.

On Saturday morning the Pacific Hotel at St. Louis was burned, and eight or ten persons perished in the flames, and a number of others were severely injured by jumping from the windows. The telegraph does not give the names of those killed.

We have some late intelligence from Utah. The army is in good health and spirits, but the weather is reported as extremely severe.

The weather at New York, was stormy on Saturday, and some marine disasters were anticipated.

It is said that negotiations are being entered into with the Russian Government, for the sale of the Cossacks line of steamers.

From Philadelphia we learn, that the steamer Diamond State, took fire during Friday night, at the West Jersey Ferry Landing, and was burning on Saturday. It is supposed she is a total loss. She was valued at $300,000, and is insured.

W. Clark was sentenced to death at Des Moines on Saturday, for the murder of his wife.

The French Indians were committing depredations upon the citizens of Nebraska City, near Fort Randall, so the St. Louis Review writes.

Commercial reports from New York indicate a little improvement in the market of the metropolis. The demand of flour is better, and what is lighter. In the New Orleans market flour is also reported advancing. Our weekly review of home trade, and money matters will be found in another column.

The weather was mild and pleasant on Saturday, and slighting in the city nearly spoiled.

EDWARD H. BROOKMAN.—Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Brookman, who have been absent from our city some two months, on a visit to friends and relatives at the South, returned home a day or two since. For nearly six years Mr. Brookman has occupied a prominent position in our State, as Superintendent and President of the Milwaukee and Mississippi R. R. Private matters requiring all his attention, he is compelled for a time to retire from active Rail Road operations; but those interested in the rail road interests, and enterprises of Wisconsin, will be sure to find him in but a warm friend, and a safe and able counselor.

Though the Prison is in Republican hands, we are convinced it never was in better, and never conducted with more credit or ability.

Police will be found the names of the officers of their duties.

The Republicans to Mr. Potter.

Our German Republican friends in this city have been prompt to recognize the spirited conduct of Mr. Potter, in the Congressional fracas on the 6th inst. The Executive Committee have sent him the following address:

Mr. John F. Potter, Feb. 19th.

We the undersigned, members of the German Republican Society of the City of Milwaukee, feel obliged to express to you, in the name of your Republican fellow citizens of German descent in this city, the grateful acknowledgments and hearty approval of your manly and gallant conduct in this crisis. We rejoice to learn, when a fresh assault was attempted by the Southern disunionists, to strike down by brutal force our freedom. Though like you, men of peace, and as such, much grieved and abashed at seeing the spirit of aggression thus raised, and the young men it is forced will soon become so. There are many interesting characters there, of all ages, and all are cared for, in such a kind and considerate manner, as to give hope such will be the case, as to our mind he has more than expiated the offence of his conduct.

Then there is Mathews,二十四歲, a man since to a term of the year, on a charge of embezzling Post Office funds. We hope that the efforts which will be made this winter to procure a pardon from the President will meet with success. Justice has been more than meted out to him. Still he bears it like a hero. Long for instance, he has been a model soldier, and a good boy. The kindness of his disposition has a true friend in every officer connected with the Prison who would hold up both hands to have him restored to his command. He has not lost a friend by his incarceration. He has a good character and is held in high esteem.

Though the Prison is in Republican hands, we are convinced it never was in better, and never conducted with more credit or ability.

Police will be found the names of the officers of their duties.

MILWAUKEE:

MONDAY MORNING, FEB. 22.

Executive Appointments.

The News, after cudgeling its brain pers-

verily for some weeks past, has finally arrived

at a satisfactory solution of the difficult problem

which it had proposed to itself, viz.: why Gov.

Randall has bestowed military commissions upon

Democrats as well as Republicans. The News

sagely concludes that it is because the Governor

cannot find, among the Republicans, sufficient materials for officering the militia, and has therefore been compelled, much against his inclinations, to submit to Democrats for these offices of trust and profit. In the same connection, the News volunteers its own very contemptuous

opinion, both of the "Black Republicans"

and of "the Militia," and lightly as it regards the latter, it does not think the former fit to command them. No doubt, both the Militia and the Black Republicans will take this opinion of the News greatly to heart, and in obedience to the whims of the two Colonels of that influential couple, proceed forthwith to disband.

But though the News seems pleased with the "high compliment to the Democracy," implied

in the selection of Democrats to fill sundry important posts in the embryo army of Wisconsin,

it does not appear wholly satisfied with the

"influence" to which it ascribes these appointments. It has again discovered Mordacal at the King's gate, and sees, in the selection of the Surgeon General and other officers, the potent and dreaded finger of Mr. Nozman. This apparition always strikes more terror to the soul

of our valiant neighbor than a whole regiment

of "Black Republicans."

"Take any step but that," and the News is comparatively at peace; but the minute the gaunt spectre rises and shakes its grisly locks, and points its threatening finger at our probationary Postmaster, he trema-

bles in every joint, and staggers through a column of laudatory ejaculations. Now we desire to lay this ghost and relieve the fears of our quaking neighbor. Let him be comforted, then, by the assurance that Mr. Nozman had no more to do with the selection of Dr. Garret, or any other officer appointed by Gov. Randall, than either of those mythical potentates, the King of the Cannibal Islands, or the Man, in the Moon.

Mr. N. has neither asked for, nor recommended the appointment of a single person to civil, or military office, under the present Administration; Gov. Randall has followed the dictates of his own judgment, in his selection of officers, though he has no doubt occasionally consulted gentlemen

of both parties, who are connected with the present limited military organization of the State. We believe there is no treason in this,

either to the Republican Party, or to the State of Wisconsin. Or if there be, we affectionately trust the News "takes the most of it."

STATISTICS OF IMMIGRATION.—In the annual report of the U. S. State Department, just published, we find the following, showing the whole number of arrivals in 1857 to be as follows:

Males, 102,621.

Females, 109,020.

Total, 211,651.

DIED OR THE PASSAGE, 229.

Males, 195.

Females, 424.

Total, 424.

TOTAL EMBARKATION, 182,707.

Males, 109,215.

Females, 109,215.

Total, 218,430.

Of this number there were from—

England, 27,800 France, 2,897

Ireland, 27,301 Prussia, 7,988

Scotland, 4,132 Germany, 83,703

Wales, 769 China, 6,934

Great Britain and Ireland, exclusive of 25,734

The total of foreigners was, 261,306

The number of our own citizens who returned from abroad was, 20,686

Of the emigrants there were under 30 years of age, 9,043

Over 30, and under 40, 130,668

Over 40, 22,905

Of the various occupations there were—

Farmers, 34,702.

Mechanics, 18,074.

Laborers, 43,249.

The number of passengers intending to re-migrate in the United States was 245,562.

The number of arrivals was 41,500 more than in 1856.

The principal increase in the number of emigrants is from Great Britain, Prussia and Germany. The number from Ireland is twelve more than the year before. There were 6,000 less from France, and one thousand more Chinese emigrants. The proportion in ages and occupations has been about the same for a number of years.

SCOTTISH IRISH DISENTERS.—The following

for the disbanding of the Leavenworth swindlers, excommunicants of the Diocese of Milwaukee, is from the Milwaukee News:

"Congress cannot accept the Leavenworth Constitution, which is reprobating the principles and policies of the Democratic party for the last two years; without being the instrument for commemorating a great outrage upon the people of Kansas, and upon the men who stand pledged to the fundamental doctrine that 'the people

shall rule.'

It is the Badger State which thus cites the authority of the News against the Leavenworth

Swindle. But at the time (three months ago)

the News thus denounced the great iniquity, it had not received its cue from Washington.

Very different is the News February from the News of November. Then, it was earnest and fervid in denouncing the Leavenworth villainy

and defaming the Administration against the "Black Republicans" paper which had the officiency to charge that Mr. Buchanan favored Leavenworth. Now, it is vociferous in praise of this same villainy, and daily endorses Mr. Huchanan for his statesman-like and patriotic of-

efforts to put down "agitation" in Kansas by fasting the Leavenworth yoke about the necks of the people.

RE-ORGANIZATION OF THE U. S. SUPREME

COURT.—The New York Times and Commercial

both favor the proposition of Senator Seward to re-organize the U. S. Supreme Court, upon the basis of a more equal regard for federal population. Five of the Judges are now from the Slaveholding States, while the population

runs thus:

Free States, 15,486,981

Slave States, 8,380,742

Thus, says the Times, while the representative population of the North exceeds that of the South more than sixty per cent, the South has a majority of the Courts.

The Supreme Court, for some years past, has been little else than a ready apologist and unscrupulous champion of the Slave Power. It has forfeited the confidence and respect of the North and needs a radical re-organization.

ANOTHER BANK WINDING UP.—The Producers Bank at Janesville, established a short time since,

has discontinued its banking business, and the State Comptroller gives notice that its bills will be redeemed at par at his office, or at the State

Bank of Madison.

CATHERINE BISHOP APPOINTED.—The Rev. P.

N. Lynch, D. D., has been appointed Catholic Bishop of Charleston, S. C.
